Technical Support from Client's side: VenuJoginpally

- We discussed about how to make it a B2B platform, and not like any B2C e-commerce website, for which we have implemented a form, when the customer is at the checkout page, he/she must enter the CIN Number. We talked about shifting this form right after log in, because we do not want an unauthorized person/company to view our products.
- We had to ask for permission to host the website.
- Void: We talked about tackling with void/canceled orders, where the customer can either send a mail and the moderator can delete the order manually.
